

Practising Licence – Labour Mobility

Purpose

Labour mobility applicants for a Practising Licence are defined as persons that have successfully challenged the Canadian approved MLT entry to practice examination(s) and are, or were, registered and working as an MLT in another regulated jurisdiction in Canada.

Document Checklist
Criteria	Details
Letter of Standing	The applicant must request a letter of standing from each Canadian MLT regulatory body they have been registered with in the previous 5 years.
General requirements for registration	- English language – Letter of Standing* generally meets this requirement. - Record check – see the Record Check Policy - Government issued photo ID - see the Photo Identification Policy
Evidence of MLT Education	Letter of Standing* generally meets this requirement.
Entry to practice exam	Letter of Standing* generally meets this requirement.
Continuing Competence Requirements	Requirements include: Continuing Professional Education 30 hours of Continuing Professional Education. - See Continuing Competency Requirements Guide Practice hours 1200 MLT Practice Hours within the previous five (5) years. - See Continuing Competency Requirements Guide NOTE: Practice hours should be reported annually, while CPE should be submitted as it is completed to ensure records remain current and up to date.
Professional Liability Insurance	Applicants must have professional liability insurance. See the Professional Liability Insurance Policy
Jurisprudence quiz	Applicants will receive the jurisprudence manual and quiz after they have completed and paid for the application.

In cases where the Letter of Standing does not provide the necessary details, the college can request additional documents.*

First issued: January 2023

Current version: July 27, 2026

Revision summary: July 2026: changed currency of practice to continuing competence requirements

Responsible for review: CMLPSK office